Dear Parents,

Merry Christmas! Thank you to everyone who attended our Thanksgiving celebration. The children did a wonderful job! They are a joy to teach, and we thank you for the privilege of being their teachers. This month we will be having fun with Christmas activities.

Upcoming Events

December 18--We invite you to join us in our classroom at 11:15. The children have a couple of special songs to share with you! Your child has also worked hard to make you a special gift that they will give you after they sing.

December 20--Chapel & Party Pajama Day-- Please wear your pajamas with your regular shoes to school.

December 21-January 6--Christmas vacation (I will send home a "Snowman Project.")

January 8--See you back at school! Please return the "Snowman Project" to school.

January 31--Spaghetti Dinner--It is a special night for your child and his/her dad or other special male guest with great food and fun!

February 7--No school/Conversations--I am looking forward to discussing your child's progress with you! Conversations are held during Calvary Preschool school hours.

Have a blessed holiday season,
Mrs. Hamstra & Mrs. Dorrance

*Colorado weather is unpredictable. Please review our "Inclement Weather" policy that is found in the Parent Handbook! Also, please remember to send a hat and mittens for your child to wear during recess. Thanks!
